Wrap4ASmile Foundation Inc. expands its program to other New Jersey's counties.

Secaucus, NJ – In the efforts to expand Wrap4ASmile Foundation, Inc. programs to other New Jersey counties, a delegation of 12 Secaucus High School students will be participating in community outreach activities and distributing school, household, and personal care supplies to 10 shelters and organizations in Middlesex, Mercer, Atlantic, and Ocean Counties from June 26 – 29, 2007.

I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the partnerships, supports and contributions from the following organizations: Kirby Foundation, KIWANIS, PBA, KIPNIS, Nestle USA, People to People International, ROTARY, Secaucus Social Services, and UNICO that have made it possible for the Wrap4ASmile program to continue to expand to other parts of New Jersey; said, Kevin Williams, the Founder of Wrap4ASmile Foundation, Inc.

Kevin Williams is a senior at Secaucus High School who would like to personally call for the youth's participation and in building a better community, improve the standard of living, and a promising future for generations to come. Kevin also would like to urge the municipal, county, state, and federal government officials to support the mission of Wrap4ASmile Foundation, Inc. and the need of future leaders. Kevin Williams' quotes: "Let youth be a part of today's resolutions for a better tomorrow! It is the youth's voice; it is the youth's vision; it is for a promising future!"

Wrap4ASmile Foundation, Inc. is a not-for-profit organization established in February 2005 to extend community outreach to those less fortunate, encourage youth to participate in local community service projects and to promote public healthcare programs. Wrap4ASmile has partnered with various organizations that are located in Hudson County, such as: The Secaucus Social Services Department, PERC Shelter, St Lucy's Shelter, Hoboken Shelter, HOPE House, and Women Rising.

Wrap4ASmile program has successfully developed its program with the support of hundreds of dedicated trustees and volunteers who have contributed over 3,000 community service hours. To date, the organization has raised funds over $20,000, distributed over 5,000 personal care bags and household items with an estimated retail value of $ 35,000 to various shelters and organizations.
